Project Overview

- Dow makes materials for consumer products.
- Materials are marketed at trade shows with augmented reality experiences.
- Experiences require separate applications.
- Our application provides an easily expandable catalog of augmented reality experiences

- Securely store connection strings
- Securely store login credentials
- Add better data validation for forms
- Test application on more devices
- Fix device-specific bugs with model importing
- Ensure code uses consistent style and naming
